Sunnehanna Country Club, in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, sits on 136 acres overlooking the Allegheny Mountains. The course, designed by A.W. Tillinghast, opened in 1923 where he incorporated many of his important design philosophies. The club is committed to its long range plan which was updated in 2008 by Brian Silva.

The membership currently stands at 525 members and has grown over the past two years in spite of a difficult economic environment. While the club provides swimming and tennis, golf is the clubs principle activity. The club has 361 active golfers and 42 national members. In June of each year the club hosts the Sunnehanna Amateur, one of the country's top amateur tournaments.
