The Latrobe Elks Golf Club, established in 1961, is a semi-private 18-hole course located in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. Spanning 6,408 yards, it offers a par-72 layout that caters to golfers of varying skill levels. The course is characterized by its narrow, tree-lined fairways and fast, undulating greens, providing a challenging yet fair experience.

Job Summary

The Golf Course Superintendent will manage and maintain the golf course and facilities, overseeing staff, irrigation, turf care, and ensuring high standards of course playability.

Key Responsibilities

Maintenance Oversight: Manage the daily operations of the golf course, including the maintenance of greens, fairways, tee boxes, and other areas to ensure optimal conditions for play.

Staff Management: Supervise and train new ground crew members, ensuring they understand their roles and responsibilities.

Irrigation and Turf Management: Manage irrigation systems and oversee turf maintenance practices, including mowing, fertilization, and pest control.

Safety Compliance: Enforce safety standards and ensure compliance with local, state, and federal regulations regarding pesticide application and equipment.

Budget: Prepare and manage the maintenance budget of approximately $500,000, keeping track of supplies and equipment.

Communications: Interact with members and address their concerns regarding course conditions, ensuring a high level of customer satisfaction.
