Employment Opportunity

- Position Available: Assistant Superintendent
Pittsburgh Field Club
121 Field Club Road
Fox Chapel, PA 15238
- About the Club: Pittsburgh Field Club is a full service 18-hole private country club, established in 1882, located just 8 miles from downtown Pittsburgh.
- "The Field Club", as it's known in Pittsburgh, hosted the 1937 PGA Championship, the 1959 Western Open, and is the annual host for the Frank Fuhrer Invitational.
- The current location was designed by Alexander Findlay in 1914. In 2012 Keith Foster developed a master plan for the club. In recent years we have executed a bunker and green surrounds renovation, fairway re-contouring, a complete driving range renovation, and just completed, a state of the art short game practice facility. Future projects include tee and cart path renovations, and a new irrigation system.
- This is a great position for Spring 2022 graduates, and housing is available!
- Responsibilities: Include, but not limited to, working closely with the Golf Course Superintendent and management team to develop daily and long range maintenance plans, leading crews, water management, fertilizer and chemical applications, irrigation repair, and many other cultural practices.
- Position Available: Immediately/open till filled
- Professional Benefits: On-site housing, meals provided, health and dental insurance offered after 60 days, 401k after 1-year, paid annual vacation, sick time, uniform allowance, and golfing privileges.
- Salary Range: DOE
- Requirements: 2 or 4 year Turf Degree/Certificate; 2 seasons of golf course maintenance preferred
- To Apply: Please email a copy of resume, cover letter, and references to: Justin McKay, Superintendent; jmckay@fieldclub.org
- Other: Looking for a hard working, self motivated candidate, who possesses a strong attention to detail and a sense of urgency when it comes to completing tasks.
